

Antifascist Defence League

The English Defence League (EDL) continue to pose a threat to our cities and towns across the UK with their racist campaign against extremist Islam .

EDL demonstrations are both increasing in size and the level of violence.

In Stoke, January, EDL supporters daubed a mosque in racist graffiti. Threats were made to an Asian run taxi service. Asian and Muslim businesses came under attack.

This month, the EDL were able to march on the Houses of Parliament in London, whilst police used violence to break up the antifascist demonstration that was present.

If the EDL marches continue – and there is no reason to think otherwise – sooner or later we will experience attacks on communities on a scale of those seen on the European continent.

We need to organise self-defence for ourselves if we are to protect our own demonstrations and our communities from fascists and the police, and to stop the EDL in their tracks. We need to form our own ANTIFASCIST DEFENCE LEAGUE.

If you agree, contact us.
