

BALLOUT EDUCATION, NOT THE BANKS!

Uni bosses cave in to UCU demands

Today's planned strike was called off after the UCU (lecturers union) had their demands met by university management. While the concessions relate to the process of consultation and review rather than guarantees to protect jobs and education, it remains a significant victory in the struggle against the bosses' devastating £35m cuts.

LUAC

Leeds University is facing £35million of cuts

Up to 700 jobs are at risk

The 'economies exercise' means every dept. must slash 10% - no part of the uni will escape the axe

Leeds uni against cuts want to organise a democratic, mass student resistance to cuts – get involved here:

TINYURL.COM/LEEDSUAC

BALLOUT EDUCATION, NOT THE BANKS!

Uni bosses cave in to UCU demands

Today's planned strike was called off after the UCU (lecturers union) had their demands met by university management. While the concessions relate to the process of consultation and review rather than guarantees to protect jobs and education, it remains a significant victory in the struggle against the bosses' devastating £35m cuts.

LUAC

Leeds University is facing £35million of cuts

Up to 700 jobs are at risk

The 'economies exercise' means every dept. must slash 10% - no part of the uni will escape the axe

Leeds uni against cuts want to organise a democratic, mass student resistance to cuts – get involved here:

TINYURL.COM/LEEDSUAC